The National Association of Chemical Distributors ("NACD"), an Illinois non-profit trade association with its principal place of business in Arlington, Virginia is the trade association of chemical distributors operating in the United States of America. NACD has adopted Responsible Distribution® as its signature program of environmental and safety excellence for its Regular Member companies.

The undersigned company is a Regular Member of NACD and recognizes that continuous compliance with Responsible Distribution® Codes and its Guiding Principles is required for distributor companies to maintain their Regular Members status and that membership is subject to revocation according to processes and procedures adopted by NACD from time to time.

As a Regular Member, this company and its senior management are committed to continuous improvement in the chemical distribution industry's responsible management and handling of chemicals. We pledge to operate our business according to these Guiding Principles and to review them in compliance with Responsible Distribution® on at least an annual basis.

1. To recognize and respond to community concerns about chemicals, their handling, use, storage, transportation, and disposal.
2. To make health, safety, security, and environmental considerations a priority in our planning for all existing and new operations, products, processes, and facilities.
3. To inform emergency response officials, employees, customers, and the public of manufacturer's information on chemical-related health and environmental hazards, and the manufacturer's recommendations on protective and remedial measures.
4. To work with customers, in accordance with manufacturer's recommendations on product stewardship including handling, use, storage, transportation, and disposal of chemicals.
5. To protect the health, safety, and security of the public, our employees, the environment, and our plants and facilities.
6. To cooperate with individuals, government and other interested entities in resolving problems created by handling and disposal of hazardous chemicals.
7. To participate with individuals, government and other interested entities in creating responsible laws, regulations, and practices to help safeguard the community, workplace, and environment.
8. To adhere to applicable local, state and national laws, rules, and regulations in respect to our handling, use, storage, transportation, and disposal of chemicals.
9. To promote the principles and practices of Responsible Distribution by sharing experiences and offering assistance to those who handle, use, store, transport, or dispose of chemicals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Regular Member executes this Statement. Signed on 12/03/2020 by the Senior Management Team of TLC Ingredients, Inc.
